

Vandalism at Cemetery Being Investigated

15 Apr 1988

Sometime between Tuesday and Thursday last week, vandals entered the Midway Cemetery and essentially destroyed priceless history. At least three pure-white marble hand-carved headstones were shattered into pieces. The stones, dating back to 1895 and 1896, were pushed off their bases and were, it

The county officer from the sheriff's department was immediately called in to investigate. Fingerprinting is being taken from some evidence they found on the spot. appears, "pounded by something," observed Don Huggard, city maintenance supervisor, and Councilman Leo Luke.

